

Refresh your mind, and your body with a portable energy drink mix that's good for you!

The energy drink market in the United States tops $500 million annually, and is growing at a rate of 60% per year. The worldwide energy drink market is an astounding $3 Billion, and is expected to grow to $10 Billion in 3 years! Why so much growth, and are these products healthy for you?

The reason for this growth is clear – everybody wants or needs more energy. Take a look:

- 75% of consumers have issues related to energy and vitality
- 25% of Americans suffer from clinically significant daytime sleepiness
- Americans are sleeping on average 1-2 hours less per night than they did 40 years ago
- 95% of workers have said they have made a mistake at work due to tiredness

What's in NEURO?

Why We're Different Than Other Energy Drinks:

Many energy drinks use high levels of caffeine and sugar that can often leave you feeling jittery. ViSalus NEURO™ uses a patent-pending blend of ingredients to provide healthy "smart energy," giving you the extra edge to help you throughout the entire day.
